UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, IT'S NATURAL THAT I WOULD FEEL NOTHING BUT BLOODLUST, RIGHT?

IS HE BACK TO HIS ORIGINAL PERSONALITY...?
...WHY ARE YOU DOING THIS?
"I" AWAKENED SEVERAL WEEKS AGO...
YOU HAVE NO IDEA HOW MUCH I'VE CURSED MY MISFORTUNE SINCE THEN.

"LET'S COMMAND THEM FROM THE SHADOWS UNTIL THE SCHOOL FESTIVAL," IS WHAT I FELT.
HOWEVER, THERE WERE SOME AUSPICIOUS NEWS.
THERE WERE PEOPLE LIKE ME WHO HAD SUCCUMBED TO THEIR BLOOD-LUST TOWARDS HANAZONO, SO...

I WANT TO KILL HANAZONO AND YOU SO MUCH I DON'T MIND DYING FOR IT.
CUT THE CRAP.

BECAUSE YOU WANTED TO KILL US,

SINCE THAT DAY, THE WORLD AROUND ME CHANGED COMPLETELY.
MY FELLOW CLASSMATES ADDRESSED ME LIKE A BABY.

THE TEACHERS AND EVEN MY PARENTS TREATED ME LIKE A TUMOR!

THAT'S WHY!
THAT... SHITTY LIFE WAS MY ROUTINE.
THAT WAS IT, SEE?
YOU TWO WILL DO ME THE FAVOR OF GOING UNDER WITH ME!
WHY DID I, THE VICTIM, HAVE TO ENDURE THAT!?

Translation notes

(I normally paste notes on margins, but this artist doesn't leave margins, damn him!)

They bloomed, they bloomed (pages 21-2) - there was a JASRAC application code below panel 03 indicating this is a real, copyrighted song. JASRAC is the Japanese Society for Rights of Authors, Composers and Publishers. I didn't bother to check the actual song out, though.

Change in speech fonts for Shinomiya - we used two fonts because, as I'm sure you have guessed, Shinomiya is changing between his childish and psychopathic personae. In the original, all of that was conveyed by changes in register. Even in moments he declared his will to kill Hanazono, if he was acting as a child he would use honorifics, his speech was rendered in kana and the would refer to himself as boku, whereas a proud Ikemen like him would normally use ore. He reverts to kanji, drops honorifics and uses ore when he goes back to... well, normal.

Suspension bridge effect (page 46) - check "Misattribution of arousal" in Wikipedia. In brief, experiments have shown that a person may mistake a feeling of anxiety, which happens to coincide with a meeting with a random person of the sex of interest, with romantic feeling for said person.

Hat-trick (page 57) - in association football, a hat-trick refers to three goals scored by the same player in a match.

Voice and figure (page 60) - the Japanese love using furigana to generate double meaning, by putting something different from what is written in the kanji. In this case, "voice and figure" were captioned "shriek and corpse".

Now, fancy that!

So, I was recruiting, as I always do, for translators, in ads like this and elsewhere. Lo and behold, a certain person by the nick of Kaleron registered in our site and submitted a very good application. Some mistakes in wording, but they got the meaning perfectly.

Excited as a child with a new toy, I wrote the welcome message and... silence. I grew slightly weary, and after a week I wrote a message asking whether they had changed their mind.

This is what I got:

I TOOK THE TEST 4 TEH LULZ.

I WAS NEVER GONNA JOIN

U mad bro?

Now, is this cool or what? I bet you are jealous!

I mean, to think a person who a) liked enough to translate a literary excerpt actually used that skill to play a prank, on us of all people!

I was amazed. It was so, so cool, even more so because I had never been trolled before, so now I can tell I am a fully fledged initiate. My fellow scanlators, too, we all had a good laugh. I showed that to Eve-nish of Silent Sky and it caused him no little mirth. The Head Translator of our team was a little baffled, as in "They had more work translating and making the GIF than we had answering his application!" (Our test is very short, though, and maybe they re-used the GIF, who knows. Yeah, it was animated.)

Not that the original itself was particularly clever. I mean, come on, I have watched Shut up and dance in the third season of Black Mirror! But I must say, I felt a little flattered that someone could choose us, among all those bad groups doing popular series, to give way to their very personal madness. In a sense, we caught their attention even in our chronic obscurity, didn't we?

Now, if we analyse this under post-modern deconstructivism according to Derrida... but I digress.

Being trolled once a nse and all, but I realised I cannot use this test anymore. I mean, who is to say we won't be faced with copycats from now on?

So we updated our selection policy for translators. Instead of a fixed test, we'll have a moving one. Applicants have to contact me (Wrath in de.atmabiss.ce.nce, Kendara at bito.to, Braveheart at Mangadoddles) requesting a test. I'll give them a short, untranslated chapter of something we happen to be working on. Most likely, Sickle Island, always the next untranslated chapter. That way, even if they vote for the test to troll us, we'll at least end up with a script we can use. So a good series to do it with, too, as chapters are no longer than 20 pages and we don't need to share our high-quality skills we have publicly, as we'll be the only ones to see the translations. And since I am the one translating it, I can tell whether the script is a cursed just by giving it a cursory look.

The troll must be shorting now. After all, causing a reaction is all they want, especially if said reaction is something they perceive as making things harder for us. But you see, it doesn't matter, because even with that simple test, about one and another applicant were the first ones we had in more than a year. It's neat of using a fail chapter to test people will make things worse than they already are.

What follows is just a partial list of things that have crossed our minds:

(I'm writing a personal summary of each one, but you can get the Mangadoddles page by pasting the number in brackets after this: https://www.mangadoddles.com/series.html?id=.)

(A few of them are things that are stalled in other groups. Perhaps listing our interest here will cause them or someone else to buckle down and resume releases. I don't mind if this happens, the important thing is that we all get chapters of the manga we like. With one exception, duly justified, I'm not listing anything that isn't stalled for more than three months, in respect for scanlation etiquette.)

Psychic Odagiri Kyouko's Lies (29584) - semen mystery comedy by the author of Liar Game. Seven volumes published, only five chapters translated so far. Wordy, and the author is brainy, so be prepared for some complicated concepts and a variety of subjects.

Shounen Y (36018) - supernatural shounen that dabbles in metaphysical and ethics matters. Three chapters were scanlated at low quality, so we'd like to begin from scratch. Finished at eight volumes. Chapters aren't too wordy or hard to translate.

God, you bastard, I wanna kill you! (19329) - a semen dark comedy. We lost the translator for this one. On hiatus after four volumes. Long chapters, but not very wordy or hard to translate. If no one shows up, I may take this one up.

Impassibility defence (36058) - another semen dark comedy, darker than God, you bastard... We also lost the translator for this one. On hiatus, and the current backlog is of four volumes. Long chapters, but not very wordy or hard to translate.

Underdog (32013) - one of our early survival manga which was axed at three volumes. Everyone asks why I don't finish this myself since it's only one chapter and an epilogue to completion. I might end up doing it, but for now I can try at least to use it as bait for new blood, can't I? The next chapter, 19, is cleaned and I think redrawn, too.

Revenge classroom (19359) - a horror shounen, currently stalled at the original scanlators. A bit of a dark comedy. The current backlog is of three volumes, and it's finished in Japan.

Broken Blade (19316) - a semen mecha manga. Technically not stalled, but the current scanlators have said with all words that we are free to start our own scanlations if we're not pleased with theirs. And quite a few people, myself included, aren't. So I consider ourselves or anyone else officially excused for not sending requests for this one. We got their permission after all.

If you have other projects in mind, we're happy to hear your suggestions. (Just read the mood by taking a look at Death Toll's record of projects, you can tell which genres we are more interested in.)

Let me add that once we get the translators, we'll have to strive to find editors. We can ensure the release of but chapters to fish for new staff once we get scripts. But don't worry, we won't ask you to translate more than one chapter initially, and will make sure that script doesn't go to waste. Only if we get new editors will we ask you to fire away at translating.
